Dated: May 01, 2010

Kiner Enterprises Inc. announces the winner of their America's Best Dance Studio Contest, in a special video premiering today, on the America's Best Dance Studio Contest website, YouTube, Facebook, and Twitter pages.

In celebration of National Dance Week, Kiner Enterprises Inc. has revealed the results of over 11,000 votes for dance studios from all over the U.S, in the America's Best Dance Studio Contest. The America's Best Dance Studio Contest is the first virtual contest specifically created to showcase excellence in dance studios across America. This revolutionary annual contest has received national recognition, and has grabbed the attention of the entire dance community.

With the explosion of dance on television shows like, "Dancing With the Stars", "So You Think You Can Dance", and Randy Jackson's, "America's Best Dance Crew", dance in America has become more popular than ever, and it all starts at your local dance studio on Main Street USA! Not only do dance studios produce the great talents that you see on these television shows, and even in New York City on Broadway, but, they are also a second home to many kids, teens, and adults throughout the country.

As a valuable resource to the dance community, Kiner Enterprises Inc., your number one source for dance instructor staffing, decided to acknowledge the tremendous impact that dance studios across the country have on their students and communities.

The third place winners of the contest, with almost 1,300 votes are, The Sundance Studio in Monterey, VA. The 1st runner up, with 3,600 votes is, All That Dance Academy, in Hudson, NH.

The official winner of the America's Best Dance Studio Contest 2010, with almost 5,000 votes is, The World of Dance, in Colonie, NY. Brittney Radz explained, "we are a newer studio that is already very well known for amazing dancers with phenomenal technique, great attitudes, and outstanding choreography. Our dance teachers see the best in everyone and push us to succeed. They take the time to find and work on each individual's weak points until we've nailed it and can move on to something else. We're always growing as dancers and we're like one big family. Everyone helps each other out and the parents are very supportive. Even when we compete against other studios, our dance fathers will be back stage to help carry off another studio's injured dancer, or help take out props. Our Tap is by far the best in the northeast, and our contemporary, jazz, lyrical, and ballet are just as extraordinary."

Donna Bell said, "The World of Dance teachers know how to highlight each child and make them shine in their solos and in the large groups! They are amazing choreographers with unique and age appropriate dances. Both of my girls have been dancing with Miss Barb and Miss Danielle since they were 3 (they are now 11 and 15). It has been an amazing experience!"

As the winner of the contest, The World of Dance will receive some very valuable prizes to help grow and market their dance studio. The contest prize sponsors are Dance Channel TV, Grosh Backdrops and Drapery, DanceSignUp.com, DanceAdvantage.net, the USA Dance Congress, National Dance Week – NYC, and Dawn DeMendonca "The Dance Marketing Queen".

All of the contest participants will continue to receive free promotion and advertising, for their dance studio, through the America's Best Dance Studio Contest Social Networks. This is an annual contest, so more studios will have the opportunity to enter the contest next year.
